

The Final Cut

"...the Rock & Ice Team took our simple yet challenging brief and made it a reality... "The Final Cut" is still being talked about months after the event. Your passion, dedication and professionalism are a credit to you. Thank you very much for adding to the success of this year's conference.

- Tony Lum, Michael Hill Jeweller

This fun filled event sees each team given a video camera and charged with producing their very own television commercial or program.

Each group will be randomly allocated a particular style or theme which their program must reflect, for example 'Queer Eye for the Straight Guy', 'Reality TV', 'Fear Factor', 'The Crocodile Hunter' and many more.

Combining creativity and team spirit, your team will take stacks of value home from this unique experience:

- Ⓢ Creative Thinking,
- Ⓢ Working together to achieve a common goal,
- Ⓢ Competitiveness to go one step further than the other teams,
- Ⓢ Coming out of your shell,
- Ⓢ Feeling good about your results,
- Ⓢ Recognising your full potential,
- Ⓢ Having fun with your colleagues

This programme could also be tailored to suit a new product launch or introduce a new team dynamic. Either can be a requirement of the team's filming objective.

The final movie will be displayed during the conference in the form of an OSCAR ceremony. This can be a great compliment to an evening dinner.
